RISKY: Girls perform on strippers' poles in clubs as older men look on

IN THE WILD RESORT OF AYIA NAPA

"This place is wild, I've had people stripping on stage for me and seen couples perform oral sex for the crowds," claims the club's resident DJ Charlie.

The massive outdoor club is surrounded by a river-like pool and is packed nightly with between 1,000 and 1,500 drunken party goers - safety precautions are non-existent as revellers dive and push each other into the dangerously shallow pool.

"Last night an Irish student jumped into the pool and split his head open. An ambulance came and he had to get 16 stitches, but he was back later with a bandage on," revealed the English DJ.

Stripped

"We warn them not to jump in the pool but they ignore us. We also tell them not to have sex in it but they don't listen to that either."

Young girls from Loretto Foxrock, Muckcross and Mount Anville stripped down to their underwear to join in the pool party.

"Eugh, there's a johnny in your hair," laughed one of the Belvedere boys at a girl swimming by, picking it out of her hair and placing it on his unsuspecting friend's shoulder.

"I've stood on about three already," he added.

"You would want to watch out you don't get pregnant jumping in, they all have sex around the corner there," he said, pointing to a part of the pool covered by a bridge where two couples were snogging - the boy's hands clearly inside the girl's bikini bottoms.
